Memo off. No. 200/P.W.D. Dated the 25th August 1914.

6 So far as I am aware, no income tax is levied directly on buildings. If any rent is realised therefrom, it is taken as income to the owner and he is taxed accordingly provided his total income from all sources exceeds the prescribed limit. In the present case, no rent is realised by the Mysore Government from the buildings referred to except from the Awdry House for the occupation of which during a part of the year a rent of Rs 10 per day is recovered from the Hon'ble the Resident.

7 It is therefore presumed that the tax referred to in these papers is the Municipal tax. I have no objection to the proposal that the Comptroller should pay the taxes due on all the buildings in one instalment and debit the charges to the several Departments concerned.

There is no objection to giving effect to the suggested procedure, viz., paying the total taxes due on a requisition from the Supdt Fern Hill Palace by this office subject to the adjustment of the amount to the various Depts. concerned, provided the requisition from the Supdt contains full details of the amounts debitable to the several Depts, so that there may be no difficulty of adjustment later on
